Many Of My People Will Go To The Lake Of Fire

“My people won’t make it, My son. I have called and called, My son, and still they refuse to obey Me. Many of My people are going to the Lake of Fire because they refuse to obey Me, My son. Many of them say they are not appointed unto wrath, yet why do they continue to disobey Me by refusing to preach My Gospel around the world? My son, My people are ensnared in the sin of disobedience, defiantly refusing to obey Me year after year, refusing to preach My Gospel around the world when I called them. They shall never enter My Kingdom, those people of Mine of which the spirit of disobedience has control of their lives. My son, My heart is against them, and My wrath is manifested against them, because they stubbornly refuse to obey Me, My son. I called My people, but chosen few, because the elect are few, and they will accomplish My Gospel preaching around the world. I will use them, and My Spirit will rest on them, and I will manifest with signs and wonders, and many miracles galore, so that the ends of the world may be reached with My Gospel preaching, and that every man may hear the Gospel, then the end will come. For I Am A God of Wrath to those who do not obey Me, and they shall enter the Lake of Fire forever. Many of My people there are who choose to not serve Me with Gospel preaching, but prefer to stay in the world, My son. My wrath is manifest against them in their lives, for they did not know Me nor do My Father’s will for their lives, My son. They shall never enter in to My Kingdom. I shall say to them, ‘depart from Me, for I never knew them.’ Your LORD has spoken. Amen.”
